

Western Australia

State Flag

In September 1912 when the Royal Warrant was issued granting Armorial Ensign and Supporters to the Commonwealth of Australia, the Black Swan was used as the emblem of Western Australia. The Ordinances of Western Australia in 1858, and appears on reprints of earlier Acts which were made in that year.

Coat of Arms

The Coat of Arms of Western Australia was granted by Her Majesty, Queen Elizabeth II, by Royal Warrant dated the 17 March 1969

State Badge

The black swan has been associated with Western Australia from the earliest times

Motto

"Cygnis Insignis"

"distinguished by its swans"

Emblems

Numbat
Or Banded Anteater
(Myrmecobius fasciatus)
Proclaimed: 25 July 1973

Black Swan
(Cygnus atratus)
Proclaimed 25 July 1973

Mangle's Kangaroo Paw
(Anigosanthos Manglesii)
Proclaimed: 9 November 1960

Gogo Fish Fossil
(Mcnamaraspis kaprios)
Proclaimed: 5 December 1995

Map

Perth

Capital

Guide Badge

Friendship

Old design State Guide badge