
1960 17th World Conference held in Greece
Jubilee year

Jubilee Year of Guiding country linkups throughout Australia, special stamp issue, Pageant of guiding at the Olympic swimming stadium, Melbourne
First interstate lone camp held in Victoria

1961 In Canada, the organization became known as Girl Guides of Canada-Guides du Canada.
The Viscountess Dunrossil - Australian Federal President
Guiding began in Dominican Republic
Dominican Rep

1962 'Ice-Cream for the Chief' fund established in Victoria. Guides gave up one ice-cream and sent the money to the fund
The Viscountess De L'Isle Australian Federal President
Mrs Buntine appointed Chief Commissioner for Australia
Queen Sirikit of Thailand visited Victorian Headquarters (Australia)
Guiding began in Rwanda and Maldives
Maldives Rwanda

1963 18th World Conference held in Denmark

Britannia Park, Victoria Maintenance fund launched
Links of Friendship Festival held at Sydney Myer Music Bowl
Link up camps held around Australia
Hon. Catherine Sidney- Australia Federal President
Our Ark renamed Olave House in honour of World Chief Guide
Lady Delacombe became Victorian State President
Mrs J. Price became State Commissioner - Victoria, (Lady Price)
Guiding introduced into Chad
Chad

1964 The Australian edition of Policy, Organisation and Rules was published. The book from Great Britain had been used before
State Camp 'Tartandi', Britannia Park, Victoria

1965 Camp 'Kindimindi'- All Australian girls and leaders- N.S.W.
Scout and Guide stamp society of Australia formed
Queen Elizabeth's personal flag was first flown during her Australian tour. This is used in place of the Royal Standard in Australia
Michael Baden-Powell (Grandson) and Miss Joan Berryman of Camberwell, Victoria, announced their engagement
Lady Casy - Australian Federal President
Princess Margaret President of the Association - Britain
Hon Catherine Sidney - Australia Federal President

