

1990 27th World Conference held in Singapore

New World Badge and World Flag. (New Trefoil design)

The Gumnut Guides section for 6-7 year olds launched 22nd February.
(Section melded in with all being "Guides" in 1996)

Czechoslovakia re-admitted to the World Association

Guiding in 112 countries

Eastern Bloc countries -

Czechoslovakia - re admitted at World Conference

Slovak Rep. (ex Czech)

Estonia - (ex USSR)

Hungary (guiding officially recognised in 1989)

Latvia - (ex USSR)

Lithuania - (ex USSR)

Poland - re-emerging and contacts made

Kiribati, Tuvalu and Vanuatu admitted as new Members to WAGGGS

Australian Brownie Leaders' Event held in Perth

Guiding introduced into Guinea

Guinea

1991 New warrant badge (Bar) for Australian leaders introduced
New Australian Uniforms for all sections and adults introduced
Australian Headquarters moved to 59 Buckingham St Surrey Hills N.S.W.
Guiding in the United Arab Emirates gave support to refugees from Kuwait during the Gulf war
The Headquarters of Kuwait Girl Guides Association was destroyed in the war
Pax Lodge officially opened Friday 13th July
Guide introduced to The Democratic Republic of Sao Tome e Principe, (former Portuguese colony off coast of Africa)

1992 Australian Brownie Leaders Event held in Alice Springs, N.T.

1993 28th World Conference held in
Guiding introduced into Kazakhstan and Qatar

Kazakhstan

Qatar

1996 29th World Conference held in Canada

New Australian program launched. - Forward With Fundamentals. Sections removed; all girls 6 - 18 to be known as "Guides"

Guiding introduced into Cambodia and Mongolia

Cambodia

Mongolia

1997 Lesley Bulman-Lever - Director of WAGGGS

1998 Australia drops the joining age to 5 years olds
Australia - New Peak Awards – Junior B-P, B-P, and Queens Guides Awards

1999 30th World Conference held in Ireland

New design Promise badge for all Australian members

